INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF MARITIME ARBITRATORS

ICMA XXI
Rio, Brazil 2020

ICMA XXI CALL FOR PAPERS

The Twenty First International Congress of Maritime Arbitrators (ICMA XXI) will take place in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil from 8 - 13 March 2020.

The Topics & Agenda Committee has been formed and a list of its Members is attached.

Proposals to present papers at ICMA XXI are now invited. A list of suggested categories of topics is also attached. Papers on any subject matter relevant to the practice of maritime law and maritime arbitration of both a procedural or substantive nature are invited.

Papers will be presented in both plenary and parallel sessions, each made up of a panel of speakers.

Speakers will be invited from the international maritime and arbitration community to present, at plenary sessions, papers on subject matters of significant general interest. If you would like to nominate yourself or someone else to receive an invitation to write a paper for a plenary session, please promptly notify the Committee Chair, Daniella Horton, at dhorton@hortation.com or any Committee member.

Papers to be presented in parallel sessions will be those dealing with more specialized subject matter than those presented in the plenary sessions.

Each speaker will be given 15 minutes to present the most interesting aspect of his/her paper likely to generate lively discussion amongst the speakers, panel members and fellow delegates.

Those wishing to present papers are requested to submit a summary of no more than 250 words by 22 July 2019 online using the below link :
