

Asia Arbitration: Hot Topics and Recent Developments

Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA) is delighted to invite you to an evening seminar event held at the Australian Disputes Centre and webcast live.

Guest Speaker: Justin D'Agostino,
Global Head of Disputes, Herbert Smith Freehills, Hong Kong.

Justin will discuss recent trends and practices in the regional arbitration landscape. Topics for the evening include:

- Third party funding in Asia: What are some trends and issues surrounding the increase in funding activity?
- Arbitration in Mainland China: Has there been a move towards internationalisation?
- Guerrilla tactics in international commercial arbitration: How are Asian courts, legislatures, tribunals and parties tackling the increasing use of this tactic?

Speaker Profile

Justin D'Agostino is the global head of Herbert Smith Freehills' dispute resolution practice and regional managing partner, Asia and Australia.

He is a leading international arbitration lawyer, having acted as counsel and advocate before tribunals all over the world and under the rules of all the major institutions, as well as in ad hoc proceedings. He also advises on arbitration-related court proceedings, and sits as arbitrator.

Justin is a Fellow of ACICA, a member of the Council and Executive Committee of HKIAC, a member of the panel of arbitrators of the Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration and on the board of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce.

He speaks regularly on a variety of topics relating to arbitration and international law and is a Visiting Professor at Tsinghua University in Beijing.

Justin is admitted as a solicitor in Hong Kong and as a solicitor advocate in England & Wales.
